

Getting to The Hilton from the Train Station.

When you get off the train. The easiest exit to The Hilton is via The new South exit.

When you get off the train. You will need to go up the escalator or take the lift up to the overhead bridge that gives access to platforms 8 to 15. When you get out of the lift or off the escalator make your way past little food outlets towards the higher platform numbers. 13.

You will see exit turnstiles. Exit and make your way down the escalator with good views of The River Aire. As you are going down the escalator there are three exits Left, Straight ahead and Right. Take the Right. As you come out walk bear right out of that bit. To a cobbled road. The building you are walking towards is the back of the hotel. As you walk alongside it on the pavement turn left when you get to the traffic lights. You have arrived.

If the Right exit is closed. Take the one straight ahead in the tunnel turn right. When you come out of the tunnel turn right . The Hotel is then on your right in front of you.

Come in to the Hotel. Walk past the escalators towards the Lifts. Livingwell reception is on your left. Please report here. 10 minutes walk

Exiting the Main Entrance

Once you have walked through the turnstile you are on a wide concourse. Walk towards the Exit top left exit into the open air.

Turn left and make your way towards The Queens Hotel. You pass the Travel center on the Left and Pret a Manger. There is a small bridge that traverses the road part of Queens Hotel. Cross at the road crossing before you go under the bridge. Then start walking down the hill as if you are doubling back on yourself. This is Bishopsgate. marked by a sign on your right. There is a Bus stop No Z1. A blue telephone box on your side of the road. Opposite is O'Neills. Leeds. Do not cross the road. As you walk down the road on the right is advertising for Shabab an Indian restaurant. Do not cross the road. You then go into a tunnel which is Neville St. Keep walking until you come out. The Hotel is on the right. Come into the Hotel. Walk past the escalators towards the Lifts. Livingwell reception is on your left. Please report here.
